Stipulated Mot. for Atty's Fees - 1 - 1

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h) and 54(d)(2), the parties file this stipulated motion for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs to Plaintiffs. The parties have agreed to a payment of $425,000 in attorneys' fees and costs, as noted in the Settlement Agreement at 5, Section II.B.4 (Attorney's Fees and Costs).

Exhibit A contains documents Plaintiffs' counsel provided to Defendants, detailing the basis for Plaintiffs' request for a payment of legal fees through November 2012. This documentation reflects fees in excess of the $425,000 figure the parties ultimately agreed upon.¹

The key consideration in determining the appropriate fees under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 is "reasonableness." The Ninth Circuit has prescribed the following factors to be considered in the balancing process required in a determination of the reasonableness of attorney fees:

> (1) the time and labor required, (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly, (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case, (5) the customary fee, (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent, (7) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances, (8) the amount involved and the results obtained, (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys, (10) the "undesirability" of the case, (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client, and (12) awards in similar cases. Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc., 526 F.2d 67, 70 (9th Cir.1975).

¹ The parties reached no agreement on the reasonableness of the rates or the number of hours 22 included in the documentation, but Defendants recognize that counsel for Plaintiffs have continued to accumulate hours since they submitted that documentation. Ultimately, considering the reduction 23 in the amount requested, the parties concluded that the total amount of the payment is fair and reasonable.

1	Applying those factors to the fee document	ntation the Parties provide in Exhibit A – especially
2	in light of the complexity of this matter, the fact the	hat it is a nationwide class action, the amount of
3	time that counsel for all parties dedicated to this n	natter, the negotiated settlement that includes a
4	dramatic reduction in the fees Plaintiffs originally	sought, and the fact that the Court has seen no
5	objection to the payment amount – the parties' res	spectfully request that the Court should conclude
6	that $425,000 represents a reasonable payment to Plaintiffs' counsel.
