

From the Hotline:

- q: Is the income of the parent or stepparent of a minor parent deemed in either AFDC or TAFDC?
- a: In both AFDC and TAFDC the income of (natural and adoptive parents is deemed to the minor parent. On the other hand stepparent income is not deemed to a minor parent in either program. See Section 204.236 of the TAFDC Policy Manual and Section 304.236 of the AFDC Policy Manual for further information.
- q: If a recipient's child is going to school full time but is not yet in first grade or six years of age, is this recipient required to do 20 hours of work or community service?
- a: It states in Section 203.400 of the TAFDC Policy Manual that the work requirement applies to grantees who have "received assistance for 60 days and whose youngest child, in the assistance unit is of mandatory school age (emphasis added)." Section 201.600 defines mandatory school age as having attained age six, or begun first grade, whichever is the later. Provided the child in question is a member of the assistance unit, this recipient is not yet required to participate in the Work Program.
- q: Is an AFDC or TAFDC recipient who has Title IX federal work study income required to be on Monthly Reporting?
- a: If the recipient has no countable earnings or no history of countable earnings (within the past six months), then this recipient is not required to be on monthly reporting. See Sections 202.930 and 202.910 (A) of the TAFDC Policy Manual and Sections 302.930 and 302.910 (A) of the AFDC Policy Manual.
