Field Operations Memo 2002-7 A
April 12, 2002

To: Transitional Assistance Office Staff

From:  Cescia Derderian, Acting Assistant Commissioner for Field Operations

Re: Suspension of Field Operations Memo 2002-7

Instructions

In the case Joslin v. McIntire, the Department of Transitional Assistance has been enjoined from proceeding with the EAEDC benefit reduction described in Field Operations Memo 2002-7.

This means effective immediately all activities in Field Operations Memo 2002-7 are suspended until further notice. All EAEDC applications and case maintenance should be processed in the usual manner.

We will give you further information as it becomes available.
