Re: Notice sent to [Redacted]

Dear [Redacted]

We're writing to let you know that the person listed below does not qualify for payment of their Medicare premium under Medicare Savings Programs (MSP).

Name: [Redacted]

Member ID: [Redacted]

Date of Birth: [Redacted]

SSN: XXX-XX-[Redacted]

MassHealth has determined that [Redacted] is no longer eligible for a Medicare Savings Program (MSP) because your countable income is over the limit. Starting August 2024, MassHealth will no longer pay your Medicare premium. [Redacted] is still eligible for MassHealth CommonHealth. See the regulations at 130 CMR 519.012(D). This is because the federal government does not allow MassHealth to offer an MSP to CommonHealth members with incomes above 135% of the federal poverty Level (FPL).

Qualifying for an MSP

You may be able to get an MSP only if you have countable income under the income limits in the table. To qualify for MSP only, you would need to cancel your MassHealth CommonHealth first.

If you are	And your monthly income is*	You may be able to get
Single	Below $2,385	QMB
	Between $2,386 and $2,824	SLMB/QI
A married couple	Below $3,237	QMB
	Between $3,238 and $3,833	SLMB/QI

*Income limits change each year on March 1.

The best way to decide whether to keep MassHealth or apply for an MSP only is to think about the type and cost of medical care you receive. Each person will have different options and decisions based on their own care needs.
